

My Sunny moment:

I went to an inflatable Park with my friend and it took my mind off things and we both had a lot of fun.

My rainy moment:

- I started crying at school because I realised that I would never get to see my dad again. I also felt very guilty as I wasn't next to him when he died.

My rainbow moment:

Finding out I was going on holiday with my mum, sister and grandparents. Also being baptised on Easter Sunday at church.
